Hymn Time:

"Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus"
Helen Lemmel (1864-1961)

Helen moved from England to America when she was 12. Her father was a Wesleyan Methodist pastor. The family settled in Wisconsin. Helen was musically trained from an early age. After finishing school, she went to Germany for four years for additional vocal training. Helen returned to Wisconsin and started a music ministry, giving concerts across the Midwest. Helen later became a music teacher at Moody Bible Institute.

In 1918, Helen was given a tract by a missionary friend. As she read it, Helen's attention was focused on this line: "So then, turn your eyes upon Him, look full into His face, and you will find that the things of earth will acquire a strange new dimness."

Helen later wrote about the above event: "Suddenly, as if commanded to stop and listen, I stood still, and singing in my soul and spirit was the chorus of the hymn with not one conscious moment of putting word to word to make rhyme, or note to note to make melody. The verses were written the same week, after the usual manner of composition, but none the less dictated by the Holy Spirit."

We need today's hymn to remind us that we must continue to make Christ the central core of our lives - to pursue the Kingdom of God and His righteousness - if we are to be victorious believers.
