Hymn Time:

"The Church's One Foundation"
Samuel Stone (1839-1900)

This hymn was written by Pastor Samuel Stone during an especially heated period of theological controversy in England. Liberalism threatened to destroy the great doctrines of the Anglican Church. Samuel was a strong supporter of the conservative faith and refused to compromise in any way when faced with critical attacks on doctrinal orthodoxy.

It was Samuel's desire to write a hymn that would reaffirm the Lordship of Christ as the foundation of the church. To combat the skeptical liberal scholarship, Samuel wrote twelve hymns based upon the Apostle's Creed. This particular hymn refers to the ninth article: "The Holy Catholic (universal) Church, the communion of saints, He is the head of this body."

Described as the poor man's pastor, Samuel demonstrated his firm belief in the local church as the instrument of Christ for meeting the needs of people. He spent much time ministering to the poor and underprivileged people in London's East End. It was said that Samuel "created a beautiful place of worship for the humble folk and made it a center of light in dark places."

Take a moment to give thanks to God for our local church family.

About the Message:

Sometimes, in many different situations, we feel that God has neglected us, forgotten us or will not answer us due to our misgivings. But many times in the Bible God tells us that we are never alone and just call His name and He will be there. Let us rest in His words as we look into the Bible.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
