Hymn time # 215

"When Morning Gilds the Skies"
Anonymous (circa 1744, Germany)

This hymn was written by a German author whose name has been lost in time. It first appeared in a Roman Catholic hymnal, Katholisches Gesangbuch, in 1744. That hymnal originated in Wurzburg, on the Main River near Frankfurt. That is lovely country, with hills and streams. It's no wonder that a poet, seeing that beauty, would be inspired to write a hymn praising God for natural wonders.

But the hymn celebrates more than natural wonders. It calls us to praise God whether we are at work or at prayer, whether in the night or in the day, even when faced with the powers of darkness, which lose their power when subjected to praise to God. It calls us to praise God "thro' all the ages long".

This hymn was originally 28 stanzas long, but most hymnals today include only four. The melody was composed by Joseph Barnby (1838-1896), an outstanding English organist and choirmaster who was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1892 in honor of his musical contributions.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil . For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

About the Sermon

One of the most devastating and pervasive problems today is worry. It seems that you can always find something to worry about. Even those of strong faith are susceptible to worry. So, What can we do about it?

Let's talk about it.
