Plan Ahead:

We will be having a bake sale next Sunday during Lambertville's house tour on October 19th. Last year's Bake Sale was a huge success! We like keeping our doors open as an outreach to our community and those coming through. If you can donate One or more baked goods that will be wonderful. Also, if you can come by on Sunday and help work the table that would also be appreciated. If you have knowledge of the church and want to walk folks up to the sanctuary again that would be great. I will be in the kitchen all day on Saturday for those who can't make it on Sunday and want to drop things off. Any questions don't hesitate to call me at (609) 865-7254. Blessings, your sister in Christ Heidi.

The Session Business Meeting is Monday 10/20, 6:30 pm @ Westminster House.

The Children's Sunday School will be starting on November 9th, 9:00 am in the Chapel (KICK Room.)

"Be Thou My Vision"

Dallan Forgaill (560-640)

According to legend, when St. Patrick was a missionary in Ireland in the 5th century, King Logaire of Tara decreed that no one was allowed to light any fires until a pagan festival was begun by the lighting of a fire on Slane Hill. In a move of defiance against this pagan ritual, St. Patrick did light a fire, and, rather than execute him, the king was so impressed by his devotion that he let Patrick continue his missionary work.

Three centuries later, a monk named Dallan Forgaill wrote the Irish poem, "Rop tu mo Baile" (Be Thou my Vision), to remember and honor the faith of St. Patrick. Forgaill was martyred by pirates, but his poetry lived on as a part of the Irish monastic tradition for centuries until, in the early 20th century, Mary Elizabeth Byrne translated the poem into English, and in 1912, Eleanor Hull versified the text into what is now a well-loved hymn and prayer that at every moment of our lives, God would be our vision above all else.
