"This is My Father's World"
Maltbie Babcock (1858-1901)

Maltbie revealed his great admiration of nature in this lovely hymn. He was recognized as one of the outstanding Presbyterian ministers of his generation, pastoring churches in New York and Maryland. Maltbie was also a skilled athlete who enjoyed all outdoor activity. He was a pitcher and captain of the Syracuse University baseball team, as well as a varsity swimmer. Maltbie especially loved his early morning walks. He would always comment to his wife, "I'm going out to see my Father's world".

Since Maltbie was also an accomplished performer on the organ, the piano and the violin, we can see why nature seemed to him to be "the music of the spheres". In addition to being a tribute to nature, this hymn is a triumphant assertion of the unfailing power of God and the assurance of Christ's eventual reign. As Maltbie wrote, "Jesus who died shall be satisfied, and earth and heaven be one".

Maltbie published nothing during his life. After his untimely death from fever while visiting the Holy Land, his wife collected and published many of Maltbie's writings, including today's hymn.

About the Message:

The Hymnal, we use it every Sunday. It is filled with songs and praises to the Lord. But yet, we don't talk about the hymnal too often. The hymnal is a powerful tool to get us closer to God either through songs of joy, sadness, or thanksgiving.

Today, we will go over our red hymnal and take a deeper look at the songs that we sing almost every Sunday.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
