Hymn Time:

"O Worship the King"
Robert Grant (1779-1838)

Robert Grant describes himself and the rest of us as "frail children of dust and feeble as frail", even though he was a member of a distinguished British family, a member of the Parliament of Scotland, and governor of Bombay, India for a time. Throughout his entire life, Robert was a devoutly evangelical Christian who strongly supported the missionary outreach of his church and endeared himself to the people of India by establishing a medical college in Bombay.

Although this is the only hymn by Robert in common usage today, it is considered to be a model for worship. Its descriptive names used in exalting the Almighty are significant: Shield, Defender, Ancient of Days, Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend. Also, the vivid imagery - "pavilioned in splendor", "girded with praise", "whose robe is the light", "whose canopy space", "chariots of wrath", - aids us in the worthy praise and adoration of our heavenly King.

About the Message:

It's a new year. A time for new starts. Luke tells us of two disciples who had a new start. How and why? Let's talk about it.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
