Plan Ahead:

Bell Rehearsal is starting on Thursday September 25th at 6:00 pm in the Sanctuary.

We will be having a bake sale during Lambertville's house tour on October 19th. Last year's Bake Sale was a huge success! We like keeping our doors open as an outreach to our community and those coming through. If you can donate One or more baked goods that will be wonderful. Also, if you can come by on Sunday and help work the table that would also be appreciated. If you have knowledge of the church and want to walk folks up to the sanctuary again that would be great. I will be in the kitchen all day on Saturday for those who can't make it on Sunday and want to drop things off. Any questions don't hesitate to call me at (609) 865-7254. Blessings, your sister in Christ Heidi.

The Children's Sunday School will be starting on November 9th, 9:00 am in the Chapel (KICK Room.)

Hymn Time:

"Trust and Obey"
John Sammis (1846-1919)

In 1886, Daniel Towner, director of the music department at Moody Bible Institute, was leading the music for evangelist D. L. Moody's series of meetings in Brockton, Massachusetts. A young man rose to give testimony, saying "I am not quite sure, but I am going to trust and I am going to obey." Mr. Towner jotted down this statement and sent it to his friend John Sammis, a Presbyterian minister and later a teacher at Moody. John wrote today's hymn based upon those words from that new believer.

Salvation is God's responsibility. Our responsibility is to trust in that salvation and then to obey its truths. This hymn represents a balanced view of a believer's trust in Christ's redemptive work, and it speaks of the resulting desire to obey Him and do His will in our daily lives. Then, and only then, do we experience real peace and joy.
