Hymn time# 682

*"Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"
William Williams (1717-1791)*

During the 18th century a spiritual revival swept through Wales. One of the lives touched by this revival was 20 year old William Williams. Young William, the son of a wealthy Welsh farmer, was preparing to become a medical doctor. But, upon hearing the challenge of an evangelist, William dedicated his life to God and the Christian community. William decided to take all of Wales as his parish. For the next 43 years he travelled 100,000 miles on horseback, preaching and singing the gospel in his native tongue. William became known as the "sweet singer of Wales".

The vivid, symbolic imagery of this hymn is drawn wholly from the Bible. The general setting is the march of the Israelites from Egypt to Canaan. Although the Israelites' sin and unbelief kept them from their destination for 40 years, God provided for their physical needs with a new supply of manna each day. Twice during the Hebrews' years of wandering, they became faint because of lack of water. At the command of God, Moses struck a large rock with his staff. Out of it flowed a pure stream that preserved their lives. God also continued to guide them with a pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night. May that same God guide all our decisions from this day forward.

The Lord's Prayer:

*Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.*

About the Sermon

God is a communicating God. The God of the Bible uses a variety of ways to get our attention and to lead us in new paths of growth and service. We expect ministers to "have a Call." But doesn't God call all of us throughout our lives? Today, by looking at the call of God to Moses in Exodus 3, each one of us can evaluate where we are in relation to what God is writing to do in us and through us.

About Reverend Tink

Rev. R. Wesley Tink has served 25 years in Full-time Christian ministry. Prior to that he was a business owner in northern Canada. After receiving a call from God, he pursued degrees at McGill University (Montreal), Princeton Theological Seminary and Drew University. Wesley pastored for 16 years on the Lawrenceville-Hopewell Township border on the outskirts of Trenton. For the past 10 years, he has been the Pastor/Executive Director of Front Step Inc., a Christ-centered community center for children, youth and families in inner-city Philadelphia. He has a particular desire to minister with those on the edges of economic opportunity. Wesley says, "At Front Step Inc. we share the love and message of Jesus Christ with families in a neighborhood racked by poverty, violence, abysmal educational options and much social inequality and injustice. Christ offers hope and answers that are found in no other way!"
