Hymn Time:

"Make Me a Blessing"
Ira Wilson (1880-1950)

The words for this hymn were written in 1909 by Ira Wilson. Ira was editor of two popular church choir periodicals, The Choir Leader and The Choir Herald. The music for this hymn was added 15 years later by George Schuler, who served for more than 40 years in the music department at the Moody Bible Institute. "Make Me a Blessing" was first introduced in 1924 at a Sunday school convention in Cleveland, Ohio, where Schuler had 1000 copies of the hymn printed for the occasion. It was received with much enthusiasm, and these words have since been widely used to challenge believers to make their lives useful to God.

We are of little value to our Lord if we do not produce fruit for Him. In fact, the command of scripture is to bear "much fruit". Regardless of the task to which God calls us, whether it be great or small, it will receive His promised blessing when we do it faithfully and with sincere motives.

About the Message:

God gave us Jesus, the Servant, as the hope we need – personally, in our community, and for all eternity.

Personally, it calls us to bring our worries, fears, and burdens to Him.

Today, let us lift our eyes to the Servant's hope, Live in the light of His promises, and carry the beauty of His Hope into the World.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
