"To God Be The Glory"
Fanny Crosby (1820-1915)

Though blinded at six weeks of age through improper medical treatment, Fanny Crosby wrote more than 8,000 gospel song texts in her lifetime of 95 years. She travelled extensively in her later years as a speaker throughout the country. Fanny said that it was her continual prayer that God would allow her to lead to Christ every person she contacted. Her many favorites have been an important part of evangelical worship for the past century. Only eternity will reveal the host of individuals whose lives have been spiritually enriched through the words of Fanny's many hymns. Engraved on Fanny's tombstone in Bridgeport, Connecticut, are these significant words taken from our Lord's remarks to Mary, the sister of Lazarus, after she had anointed Him with costly perfume - "She hath done what she could" (Mark 14:8).

About the Message:

The Triune God Christians worship is a sending God. Consider the ordinary people God sent to take part in God's plan for the salvation of humanity: Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Jonah, Gideon, John the Baptist, and Jesus. In the Gospel of John, Jesus used the word "send" or "sent" at least thirty times.

In John 20:19-21 today, we'll see how Jesus sent His followers, then and now (which means us!) to take part in the unfolding of God's gracious plan to redeem humanity and all creation.

The Lord's Prayer:

*Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.*
