Hymn Time:

"For the Beauty of the Earth"
Folliott Pierpoint (1835-1917)

Not much is known about Folliott Pierpoint, the author of this hymn. He was born in Bath, England, a lovely town nestled in the hills. Today in Bath, one can still view the large pools of mineral baths for which the town was named.

He was a professor of the classics at Somerset College and later became a freelance writer. The inspiration for this hymn was said to come to Folliott as he was strolling around Bath one day in late spring, enjoying the beautiful countryside with the winding Avon River in the distance.

Folliott also recalled his social blessings of friends and home. Above all, however, were the spiritual blessings as represented by the church, God's chosen agency for accomplishing His divine purpose in the world.

About the Message:

As Jesus set out to explain his ministry, he sought out His Disciples. The First Four Disciples were Fishermen. As we are here today during the Annual Shad Fest in Lambertville, is Jesus still looking for Fishermen of People ?

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
