Hymn Time:

"Be Still My Soul"
Katharina von Schlegel (1697-1768)

This hymn was originally written in German ("Stille meine Wille, dein Jesus hilft siegen") in 1752. Not much is known about Katharina, but that she had written many hymns over her lifetime. Be Still, My Soul was translated into English in 1855 by Jane L. Borthwick.

The music was added later by Finland native Jean Sibelius in 1899. The tune was then put to the words and appeared in The Church Hymnary in 1927, which was edited by and then brought to the United States by Welsh Scholar, David Evans. This was first used as a Presbyterian hymn in 1933, and has remained beloved.

About the Message:

Crazy? It's what Patsy Cline sang for her falling in love. It's what Paul Simon sang after all these years. So, what do crazy singers and some people of the Bible have in common? Let's find out.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
