Hymn # 597

"Take My Life and Let It Be"
Frances Ridley Havergal (1836-1879)

Today's hymn was written by the woman who had become widely known throughout England as "the consecration poet". It was said of Frances that she always lived her words before she wrote them. Frances' life was one of constant and complete commitment to God. Her many talents - an accomplished pianist and vocalist, proficiency in seven languages, a keen mind (memorization of the entire New Testament, Psalms, Isaiah and the Minor Prophets) - were all dedicated to serving God.

Her musical talents could have brought her much worldly fame. However, she determined that her life's mission to to sing and work only for Jesus. Verse two says, "Take my voice and let me sing always, only for my King". The line in verse three was also sincerely phrased, "Take my silver and my gold, not a mite would I withhold". At one time Frances gathered together her many fine pieces of jewelry and other family heirlooms and shipped them to the church missionary house to be used for evangelizing the lost.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil . For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.
