"All Glory, Laud and Honor"
Theodulph of Orleans (760-821)

This Palm Sunday hymn was written approximately A.D. 820 by Bishop Theodulph of Orleans, France, while he was imprisoned at the monastery of Angers. Theodulph was well known in his day as a poet, pastor and beloved bishop of Orleans. When Emperor Charlemagne died in 814, the bishop was put into a monastic prison by Charlemagne's son and successor, Louis I the Pious, for allegedly plotting against him. A well-known legend has long been associated with this hymn. It is believed by many that a short time before Theodulph's death in 821, Louis was visiting in the area where Theodulph was imprisoned and by chance passed under his cell. The bishop is said to have been singing and worshiping by himself. When the emperor heard the song we will sing today being sung by Theodulph, he was so moved that he immediately ordered Theodulph's release.

About the Message:

For the next three weeks we will be studying encounters with Jesus during his final days leading to Easter. How do these encounters impact us? Does our past impact our future? Do our failures mean we are unforgiven? Are we changed because of these encounters. What are our motives and do our plans change because of these encounters. What role do we play in the death and resurrection of Jesus?

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

The Palms (Chorus)

Join all and sing His name declare!
Let every voice resound with acclamation
Hosanna! Praise ye the Lord
Bless Him who cometh to bring us salvation.
