Hymn Time:

Daniel C. Roberts (1841-1907)
"God of Our Fathers"

Today's hymn reminds us that concerned citizens of the heavenly kingdom should also be involved citizens of their earthly kingdom. Daniel Roberts had served in the Civil War with the 84th Ohio Volunteers. He wrote these words in 1876, the year that America was preparing to celebrate its 100th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Daniel was the rector of a small Episcopal church in Brandon, Vermont. He felt that the country should have a new national hymn for the occasion. Daniel's new song was sung for the first time by the parishioners of the Brandon village church for their worship service on July 4, 1876.

Later, at the time of the actual National Centennial Observance commemorating the adoption of the Constitution, Daniel's hymn was chosen as the official hymn for the event. These words remind us that the God who has so richly blessed our land in the past is the God we still need to be "our ruler, guardian, guide and stay".

About the Message:

Words like Duty, Honor and Courage we normally associate with the Military or core values or virtues of the Armed Services. Could they be Christian or faith values as well? In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus speaks and counsels about the seriousness of oath taking. But he concludes with this let your yes be yes, no be no advice. Why? Maybe because he wants us to the end of the day to simply do our jobs, do our duty, do our given tasks in faith and belief. As the Marine Corps reminds us in their motto: "Sempre Fidelis" Always Faithful.

The Lord’s Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
