"Be Thou My Vision"

Dallan Forgaill (560-640)

According to legend, when St. Patrick was a missionary in Ireland in the 5th century, King Logaire of Tara decreed that no one was allowed to light any fires until a pagan festival was begun by the lighting of a fire on Slane Hill. In a move of defiance against this pagan ritual, St. Patrick did light a fire, and, rather than execute him, the king was so impressed by his devotion that he let Patrick continue his missionary work.

Three centuries later, a monk named Dallan Forgaill wrote the Irish poem, "Rop tu mo Baile" (Be Thou my Vision), to remember and honor the faith of St. Patrick. Forgaill was martyred by pirates, but his poetry lived on as a part of the Irish monastic tradition for centuries until, in the early 20th century, Mary Elizabeth Byrne translated the poem into English, and in 1912, Eleanor Hull versified the text into what is now a well-loved hymn and prayer that at every moment of our lives, God would be our vision above all else.

The Elder on Call for the Month of November is: Phil McCloughan- 609-947-3520

About the Message:

We come to church for the word of God and the fellowship of each other with the traditional approach used to by our Elders, and we see our church isn't as full as it used to be. Not that we are doing anything wrong, but people aren't coming into the church like they used to. Where do young people hear the word of God and the love of Jesus? As we start this Christmas Season with Christ the King/Reign of Christ Sunday.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
