Hymn Time:

"Hark! the Angels Sing"
Charles Wesley (1717-1788)

Christmas carols as we know them were abolished by the English Puritan parliament in 1627, because they were part of a "worldly festival," which they considered Christmas to be. As a result, there was a scarcity of Christmas hymns and carols in the 17th and early 18th centuries. Charles Wesley's "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" was one of the few written during this period. Wesley's fine text and the melody by master composer Felix Mendelssohn have given this song its great popularity and its standing as a classic among Christmas songs.

Like many of Wesley's more than 6500 hymns, this text clearly presents Biblical doctrine in poetic language. The first stanza describes the song of the angels outside Bethlehem with an invitation to join them in praise of Christ. The following verses present the truths of the virgin birth, Christ's deity, our hope for eternal life, the new birth of the believer, and a prayer for the transforming power of Christ in our lives.

Karen Thatcher 609-397-8430

About the Message:

*Philippians 4:6-7,
Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.*

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
