Hymn Time:

"O Worship the King"
Robert Grant (1779-1838)

Robert Grant describes himself and the rest of us as "frail children of dust and feeble as frail", even though he was a member of a distinguished British family, a member of the Parliament of Scotland, and governor of Bombay, India for a time. Throughout his entire life, Robert was a devoutly evangelical Christian who strongly supported the missionary outreach of his church and endeared himself to the people of India by establishing a medical college in Bombay.

Although this is the only hymn by Robert in common usage today, it is considered to be a model for worship. Its descriptive names used in exalting the Almighty are significant: Shield, Defender, Ancient of Days, Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend. Also, the vivid imagery - "pavilioned in splendor", "girded with praise", "whose robe is the light", "whose canopy space", "chariots of wrath", - aids us in the worthy praise and adoration of our heavenly King.
