"When Morning Gilds the Skies"
Anonymous (circa 1744, Germany)

This hymn was written by a German author whose name has been lost in time. It first appeared in a Roman Catholic hymnal, Katholisches Gesangbuch, in 1744. That hymnal originated in Wurzburg, on the Main River near Frankfurt. That is lovely country, with hills and streams. It's no wonder that a poet, seeing that beauty, would be inspired to write a hymn praising God for natural wonders.

But the hymn celebrates more than natural wonders. It calls us to praise God whether we are at work or at prayer, whether in the night or in the day, even when faced with the powers of darkness, which lose their power when subjected to praise to God. It calls us to praise God "thro' all the ages long".

This hymn was originally 28 stanzas long, but most hymnals today include only four. The melody was composed by Joseph Barnby (1838-1896), an outstanding English organist and choirmaster who was knighted by Queen Victoria in 1892 in honor of his musical contributions.
