"Doxology"
Thomas Ken (1637-1711)

The lines of the Doxology have been the most frequently sung words of any known song for more than 300 years. Even today, nearly every English-speaking protestant congregation unites at least once each Sunday in this noble overture of praise.

The author of this text was a bold, outspoken 17th century Anglican Bishop named Thomas Ken. Thomas' illustrious career in the ministry was stormy and colorful. He served for a time as the English chaplain at the royal court in the Hague, Holland. Thomas was so outspoken, however, in denouncing the corrupt lives of those in authority at the Dutch capital that he was compelled to leave after a short stay.

Upon his return to England, Thomas was appointed by King Charles II to be one of his chaplains. Thomas continued to reveal the same spirit of boldness in rebuking the moral sins of the King. Despite this, King Charles always admired his courageous chaplain, calling him "the good little man." One historian gave this tribute to Thomas: "He came as near to the ideal Christian perfection as human weakness permits."

About the Message:

What does Jesus "save" about us when we are saved? And what exactly does that mean? We talk of redemption or salvation often. But what is the meaning and context of those words? When we claim to be "born again". What exactly are we born from and born into?

Confession of Faith

This is what we confess as a Body of Christ. The Bible is the inerrant Word of God. The sole authority in all matters of life and faith. We confess that Jesus Christ alone is the only name of Salvation. We confess that the Holy Spirit alone brings New Life and holiness to the Church. Guided by such, we affirm, and we as a Body of Christ stand upon the solid rock of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we will not be moved.
