About the Message

Communion, also known as the Eucharist or Lord's Supper, is included into many Easter services as an act of remembrance and celebration. By sharing the bread and cup, believers directly connect with the Last Supper, realizing the broken body and shed blood of Christ as the new covenant. Taking Communion on Easter supports the experience of the risen Lord, inviting participants to receive new life, the forgiveness of sins and the unity of believers.

"Christ the Lord is Risen Today"

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Today's hymn has been one of the church's most popular Easter hymns since it was first written by Charles Wesley in 1738. Right after graduating from Oxford University in 1735, Charles decided to sail to America. He came to the New World to evangelize the colonists in Georgia and the indians. Charles soon became disillusioned with the situation and returned to England after only a short time.

As he crossed the Atlantic, Charles was impressed by a devout group of Moravians who seemed to have such spiritual depth and vitality, as well as a heart for lost souls. After returning to London, Charles met with some Moravians in 1738. Charles had a "heart-warming experience", realizing that even though he had been zealous in religious activity for most of his life, he had never personally known either God's forgiveness or real joy. From that time on his ministry displayed a new dimension of spiritual power.

If all of our eternity is to be realized on this side of the grave, we are hopeless and to be pitied (I Corinthians 15:19). But for the Christian, the resurrection assures us of God's tomorrow. This anticipation makes it possible to live joyfully today, regardless of life's circumstances.

The Lord's Prayer:

*Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil .For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.*

At the Table of the Lord

Responses for Communion (bolded)

*The Lord be with you,
And also with you
Lift up your hearts.*

*We lift them up to the Lord,
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.*

*Holy, Holy, Holy Lord,
God of power and might,
Heaven and Earth are full of Your Glory.
Hosanna in the highest.*

*Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hossanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest!*

*Praise to you, Lord Jesus Dying you destroyed our death,
rising you restored our life.
Lord Jesus, come in glory.*

Confession of Faith

*This is what we confess as a Body of Christ. The Bible is the inerrant Word of God. The sole authority in all matters of life and faith. We confess that Jesus Christ alone is the only name of Salvation. We confess that the Holly Spirit alone brings New Life and holiness to the Church.
Guided by such, we affirm, and we as a Body of Christ stand upon the solid rock of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we will not be moved.*
