"Tis So Sweet To Trust In Jesus"

Louisa Stead (1850-1917)

Out of one of the darkest hours of her life - the tragic drowning of her husband - a young mother proclaimed through her tears, "Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus... and I know that thou art with me, wilt be with me to the end." As Louisa Stead, her husband and their little daughter were enjoying an ocean side picnic one day, a drowning boy cried for help. Mr. Stead rushed to save him but was pulled under by the terrified boy. Both drowned as Louisa and her daughter watched helplessly. During the sorrowful days that followed, the words of this hymn came from the grief stricken wife's heart.

Soon after this Louisa and her daughter left for missionary work in South Africa. After more than 25 years of fruitful service, Louisa was forced to retire because of ill health. She died a few years later in Rhodesia. Her fellow missionaries had always loved "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus." Louisa's fellow missionaries wrote this tribute after her death: We miss her very much, but her influence goes on as our 5000 native Christians continually sing this hymn in their native language.

About the Message:

Fear Not for the Lord is our God.

Trust in Him and He will remove all your fears and bring you into His Kingdom.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
