"The Solid Rock"
Edward Mote (1797-1874)

The Bible likens our life to a house. Some homes are built to last while others crumble easily in strong wind or rain. The difference is not in the severity of the storm but the quality upon which the structure is built.

Edward Mote knew nothing about God or the Bible as he grew up in London, the child of poor innkeepers. At the age of 16 he became a follower of Christ. Edward settled in a suburb of London where he became known as a successful cabinet maker and a devoted church layman.

After a time, a Baptist church was built in Sussex, England, largely because of Edward's efforts. The grateful church members offered Edward the deed to the property. Edward refused it saying, "I only want the pulpit, and when I cease to preach Christ, then turn me out of that." Here Edward ministered faithfully until forced to resign due to poor health one year before his death.

One can tell the words in verse 1 were written by a carpenter: "My hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness. I dare not trust the sweetest frame but wholly lean on Jesus' name."

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil . For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

About the Sermon

Living in a fast paced world where we can order nearly anything and expect it delivered to our home in 2 days or less, where nearly unlimited information is just a few finger taps away, and where data circles the globe in milliseconds, delays can be infuriating.

Our tolerance as a society for any delay has nearly vanished… and yet… the bridegroom in our Gospel was delayed, and the return of the savior of our sisters and brothers in Thessalonica were waiting for was also delayed. A millennia later, we still are waiting for the lord's return.

What are we to do?
