Hymn # 63

"All Creatures of Our God and King"
Francis of Assisi (1182-1226)

All the magnificent wonders of nature reveal the majesty of God and glorify Him. From the grateful heart of a devoted monk in the year 1225 came this beautiful message. As a great lover of nature, Saint Francis saw the hand of God in all creation, and he urged people to respond with expressions of praise and alleluia.

Giovanni Bernardone, the real name of Saint Francis, demonstrated through his own life all the tender, humble, forgiving spirit and absolute trust in God that his hymn urges others to have. At the age of 25, Bernardone left an indulgent life as a soldier, renounced his inherited wealth, and determined to live meagerly and to imitate the selfless life of Christ.

Saint Francis appreciated the importance of church music and encouraged singing in his monastery. He wrote more than 60 hymns for this purpose. The beautiful expression of praise in today's hymn has endured throughout the centuries.

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil . For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

About the Sermon

Do we get complacent when we work together to share our Faith and God's Word?

When we see so much that goes against what we are trying to accomplish!

To trust God
in the light is nothing,
but trust him in the dark.
That is faith.

C.H. Spurgeon
